Dear Friends,

It is our pleasure to provide you with another AEB catalogue with some new titles and bestsellers.

These have been difficult days; many people stuck at home, some without much contact with others. In the Bible (2 Samuel 7v1), we read about King David sitting at home, looking around him; something most of us have done a lot of lately. However, when David looked around, he turned his thoughts to the ark of God and to the sanctuary. Our Saviour is the Saviour of the sanctuary; He appears in the presence of God for us (Hebrews 9v24). But the truth of the sanctuary is that we are already seated with Christ in the heavenlies and He is with us at all times; Emmanuel, God with us.

We find both truths in the stories of the disciples on the sea of Galilee. In Matthew 14, when the disciples are caught in the storm, Christ is on the mountain in prayer. In Mark 4, He is with them in the ship. We have both. In times of trouble, when our ship is on stormy sea, we have a Saviour in the glory at God's right hand who is interested in our difficulties. We also have One Who is with us in the storms and trials of life. We trust the Lord will bless and encourage you in these days.

At AEB, we are delighted to be open again. We really enjoyed being able to serve you during lockdown via mail order and local deliveries, but we are chuffed to be able to see you all and speak to you again. We kept busy during lockdown rearranging most of the displays in the shop. We hope you don't get lost! We have also prepared a few more Crimond House publications: A new book by Donald Cameron on The Blessed Hope, and two classic reprints from Harry Ironside, with a third to come for the Christmas season.

We appreciate your support, custom and words of encouragement in these days which were so difficult to navigate in the shop. It has been a true joy to serve you when what we offer was needed more than ever.

Yours on behalf of the A.E.B. team,
RickY McCoubrey.

The Blessed Hope of Pretribulationism

Timing which ticks all the boxes
by Donald CB Cameron

The two thousand year Church Age is rapidly drawing to its close. Those ominous portents which we are currently experiencing, which the Bible calls the signs of the times, should alert us and encourage us to make the best use of our remaining time. But what happens next? Before earth's culminating thousand year age of restoration and righteousness comes the mercifully short Day of Vengeance of our God, in which Satan's Antichrist's dramatic rise and rapid fall will take place. The earth will be on the brink of extinction.

In this book we examine the many prophecies which assure us that believers will not undergo this terrible time, but rather will be caught up or 'raptured' to heaven, when the 'dead in Christ' are resurrected. This we believe to be the opening event of Christ's Second Coming. The closing event will be His Return as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, to rule with a rod of iron the world which once despised and rejected Him. This book examines the various programmes held by fellow-believers, which claim that the Church is to undergo all or part of the Day of Vengeance, and concludes that the Bible teaches a potentially ever-imminent home call for all believers – not only the most spiritual. It is indeed a Blessed Hope – what some call Pre-Tribulationism.

HARRY IRNSIDE CLASSIC REPRINTS

H.A. (Harry) Ironside (1876-1951) was the most famous Bible teacher of his era and a respected evangelist for over fifty years. He authored over fifty expositional commentaries still widely used today and pastored the Moody church from 1929 to 1948. Crimond House Publications are pleased to bring you two of his classic reprints, with a third due in the autumn.

A HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE BRETHREN MOVEMENT

Subtitled, "An Account of Its Inception, Progress, Principles and Failures, and Its Lessons for Present Day Believers," this is a warm, affectionate look at this movement, balanced with constructive criticism. From its beginnings in the early 1800s, the "brethren movement" made an incalculable contribution to Bible teaching literature and hymnology, opening up teaching on areas such as prophecy and typology. A valuable and insightful read.

RANDOM REMINISCENCES: FIFTY YEARS OF MINISTRY

In this priceless little book, Ironside tells us some of his most interesting experiences in his long years of gospel work. "Solomon tells us that as 'Iron sharpeneth iron, so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend' (Proverbs 27:17). It is in the hope that these stories of God's ways of grace with one of the least of His servants may tend to 'sharpen' the spiritual experiences of others, that they are now reprinted in this form." - from the preface.

Crimond House Highlights

Beneath the Wings of Love

Poems of encouragement and blessing

Compiled by RICKY MCCOUBREY

Poetry can stir the soul, comfort the heart and stimulate the mind. This collection contains poems from renowned authors such as Robert Murray McCheyne, Fanny Crosby, John Bunyan and C.T. Studd, and many from lesser-known believers who have experienced the grace of God in times of deep trial. We trust this little volume will draw reader's thoughts away from this transient world and off to the Saviour, the "Man in the glory."

BOY MATTHEW

A story of grief and grace by Phyllis and Hertford Arnold

This book is a testimony and tribute to a young man, Matthew Arnold, who early in life, had anchored his faith in Jesus Christ. It is no surprise that one of his favourite hymns was "Will your anchor hold in the storms of life, When the clouds unfold their wings of strife ...". Matthew was killed in a motor-cycle accident three weeks after the birth of his first child, Eve Matty Jean. His wife, Ciara, was absolutely devastated. For his parents, Hertford and Phyllis Arnold, and Matthew's brother Ford and wife Nicola, it was a further heart-breaking and inexplicable calamity. They had already suffered the loss of two sons, Thomas and Wendsley, back in November 1989 within several days of each other. That story and testimony is already recorded in a book, 'Some Party in Heaven.'

'Boy Matthew' is a family testimony of how God's grace has sustained them through their grief and sorrow. The testimony of 'the anchor' that Matthew sang about, is that "the anchor still holds," sure and steadfast in the midst of the severest storms in life – that anchor is Jesus Christ, the Rock of our salvation.

DAILY SHALL HE BE PRAISED

A day-by-day anthology of hymn writers and their work

BY DAVID GILLILAND

Many of our treasured hymns become even more precious and meaningful when some details of their author and circumstances of writing are known. The spiritual songs which so thrill our hearts, nourish our souls and express our faith, were not written in a vacuum. They sometimes took their rise in the context of a life of busy service for the Lord, or sometimes in a situation of heart-rending grief. Some of the sweetest songs have been wrung from hearts crushed with sorrow and they are sung with deeper meaning when the background is known. The volumes of this work take their readers on a journey through the 365 days (plus an extra day for a leap year) of a complete calendar year and recount something of the setting and stories connected with many of our favourite hymns, as well as some worthy hymns which are less well known.

THE SURPRISING SAVIOUR

Mark Sweetnam

This is, in a sense, a book about a word. Each of its chapters considers a portion of Scripture where the Greek word thaumazō appears – a word most often translated in the Authorised Version as 'marvelled'. But it is also, and more importantly, a book about a Person, for, with the exception of the final chapter, each use of the word examined relates the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ. As we trace this word through the gospels, we are reminded that we have a surprising Saviour – a Saviour Whose uniqueness, seen in so many different ways, caused men and women to marvel as they encountered Him during the days of His flesh. Those same unique glories should still move us to worship and should still surprise us. This book takes a fresh look at familiar passages and well-known narratives with the goal of causing our souls to be filled with a renewed sense of wonder and a fresh appreciation of Christ.
