

He Giveth more Grace

The poetry of

ANNIE JOHNSON FLINT

Annie knew what it meant to experience the grace of God in times of deep trial. Bereaved of her mother at age three, she was crippled with arthritis all her life, and confined to her home for much of it. Her poetry is full of deep spiritual truths and we trust they will be a blessing to you, as they have been for countless others. This little book contains eighty-nine of her poems, including:

Be Not Anxious, Faithful Is He Who Has Promised, He Giveth More Grace, I Cannot But God Can, New Every Morning, One Day at a Time, Passing Through, Rest, Tired Heart, Songs in the Night, What God Hath Promised.

Memories of Bethany

J.R. MacDuff

A warm, devotional look at that home in Bethany, dear to the heart of Christ. When there was nothing in the city for Him (Mark 11:11), He retreated to Bethany, where there were hearts to appreciate Him. Paperback. £8.99

"For sound doctrine, presented scripturally and devotionally... you cannot go beyond MacDuff." - Charles H. Spurgeon
