Sankey MY LIFE AND SACRED SONGS

The stories behind your favourite hymns.

The first time he sang with D.L. Moody he stood on a wooden crate on a street corner. Before long, Ira Sankey was singing in front of thousands of people in the U.S.A. and Britain. He introduced to the world many of today's best-known hymns and profoundly impacted gospel music for future generations. In this story of Sankey's remarkable life, you will read of how God used the Moody and Sankey meetings in a remarkable way. The names with which they were associated will roll off the tongue; Major D.W. Whittle, Philip P. Bliss, Fanny Crosby, and many more. You will read of the background of many of your favourite hymns; read of the first time The Ninety and Nine was sung, how Sankey made up the tune on the spot, the tune we still use today. You will be encouraged and renewed as you dive into the background of these old hymns, and will be assured once again that the Lord can still use the preaching of His Word and the "singing of the gospel" to the blessing of saint and sinner.

MISSIONARY TRAVELS in CENTRAL AFRICA

Fred Stanley Arnot 1858-1914

When David Livingstone spoke at a prize-distribution in Hamilton, Scotland, his tales of missionary exploits and intrepid explorations captured the imagination of a young boy. That boy was Fred Stanley Arnot and, after his conversion, the Lord would put into his heart the desire to take the gospel to Africa. For thirty-three years he poured his heart out for Africa, travelling thirty thousand miles of its "trodden and untrodden paths." He crossed Africa from coast to coast, taking the gospel to slave and king as he went. His relatively short life was spent for the Lord and for those who needed to hear the gospel of God's grace in the heart of Africa.

"From the day of my conversion when quite a boy I cherished the desire to take some share in carrying the gospel to Central Africa."

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our latest A.E.B. Christmas Gift Guide.

Psalm 93 tells us, "The Lord Reigneth." In such uncertain times, when even those in power seem so powerless, we know that the Lord reigneth! This "kingdom Psalm" tells us seven things about Christ's kingdom:

- v.1 Incomparable - "clothed with majesty"
- v.2 Unshakable - "established of old"
- v.2 Untraceable - "from everlasting"
- v.3 Unassailable - "the Lord on high"
- v.5 Unquestionable - "very sure"
- v.5 Incorruptible - "holiness becometh Thy house"
- v.5 Inexhaustible - "for ever"

Whatever the tumult and trouble in the world, however loud and threatening the noise of the "many waters", the "Lord on high" is mightier than it all and we are anchored to Him. Every kingdom takes character from its monarch and Christ is all these things. He is: incomparable, unshakable, untracable, unassailable, unquestionable, incorruptible and inexhaustible.

We are very pleased to bring you our latest catalogue, only a taster of what we have available in our shop. We hope you enjoy flicking through the pages. Could we point out one or two products of special interest?

On the page opposite, you will see a classic reprint of F.S. Arnot's autobiography. This is a book everyone should read and would particularly make a great gift for a boy. A real "boy's own adventure."

On page 4 you will find another classic, telling the story of those early "brethren" and their work for the Lord.

Could we remind you again of our runaway bestseller from last year, Sankey: My Life and Sacred Songs. We were extremely pleased with the response to re-issuing this book which had been out of print for over fifty years. The story of how the Lord worked through the Moody & Sankey campaigns, and the stories behind favourite old hymns will stir and encourage any heart. The legacy left from Moody's preaching and Sankey's hymns is still with us today.

We would like once again to thank you for all your support during another year and wish you every blessing for Christmas and the coming year.

Yours on behalf of the A.E.B. team,
Ricky McCoubrey.

Chief Men Among The Brethren

One hundred biographies

£12.99

“Numerous lives of well-known Christians who have done yeoman service for the Master being in print, it was thought wise to attempt a few brief records of chief men in what has become known as the Brethren Movement.

The scriptural phrase ‘chief men among the brethren’ (Acts 15:22) seemed so appropriate that we have ventured to use it without in any way claiming it as a party or exclusive title.

It indicated brethren known and beloved in the first century who sought to be guided by the Scriptures; it may rightly indicate the leaders in a movement in the 19th and 20th centuries.”

Esther

For Such a Time as This

Samuel T. Carson

Whatever may have been thought at the time, this little book profoundly reveals that while God may have withdrawn His presence from His people, at least in a public sense, when they stood in mortal danger His love for them, and His care of them, remained.

The fascinating story of the book of Esther is certainly no fairy tale, on the contrary, it tells of the triumph of good over evil! It centres on the wisdom and prowess of the beautiful queen Esther when she was confronted with the machinations of the wicked Haman, who was then the King's first minister.

The ten chapters that make up the book may be divided into five pairs, and over each pair can be written the name of one of the five actors that are most prominent in the book as a whole.

The Journey to Jerusalem Jeremy Gibson & Graeme Hutchinson

Looking beyond His approaching suffering, to glory, Christ 'steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem' (Lk 9.51). Approximately six months later, in fulfilment of Zechariah's prophecy, He rode triumphantly into Jerusalem upon an ass, declaring Himself to be Israel's Messiah. This book seeks to capture, in roughly chronological order, what took place within that six month period. During this stage of the Lord's public ministry large crowds followed Him, many professed to believe on Him and there was a growing expectation that the Kingdom of God was about to be established on earth. At the same time He faced increasingly dangerous opposition. Despite this, the Saviour persisted on His course, retaining a joyful disposition and a vibrant personal prayer life. Every word which He spoke and every step He took in His journey to Jerusalem glorified God and displayed His moral excellence. A beautifully-presented, tabletop hardcover book with full colour.

THE CLEANSING OF THE LEPER

‘The clean’
(MR. 8:1-4; MK. 1:40-45; LK. 5:12-13)

The leper then came to Jesus and knelt before him and said, ‘Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me.’ Jesus said unto him, ‘I will, if thou wilt.’ Then he put forth his hand and touched him: immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was clean. When a leproser is cleansed by Jesus, it is a demonstration of His power over the natural world and over the spiritual world.

In the Bible, leprosy is a metaphor for sin. The leproser is a man who is spiritually unclean and is separated from God. When Jesus touched the leper, He was demonstrating His power over sin and over the natural world. The leproser was cleansed by Jesus, and he was clean. This is a demonstration of His power over the natural world and over the spiritual world. This is a demonstration of His power over sin and over the natural world. This is a demonstration of His power over the natural world and over the spiritual world.

This is a demonstration of His power over the natural world and over the spiritual world.

In this book, John Parkinson's keen eye and photographic skill have captured stunning images of God's majestic creation. These beautiful photographs are accompanied by a series of devotional meditations on the miracles performed by the Creator of all this beauty while He moved in His own creation.

As He met men and women whose lives were marked and marred by the destructive impact of sin, the Saviour's authority was marvellously seen in His power over sickness, over the natural world, over demons, and even over death itself.

These miracles demonstrate the true identity of the Son of God. They display the authority of Messiah, confirming that He has the ability to fulfil all of the Scripture's promises for the coming Millennial age. And they communicate vital lessons about how Divine power can change the lives of sinful men and women in the present.
