Dear Friends,

Welcome to our latest A.E.B. Christmas Gift Guide. We trust this finds you all well.

None of us knew the strange times that would come upon the world and the trials that would face us. One thing we do know is that there is a Saviour at God's right hand who is interested in our difficulties.

Three times in His life the Saviour shed tears:

In Luke 19:41, He wept over the city - weeping in invitation - the prophet calling people to God.

In John 11:25, He wept with His own in sorrow - weeping in identification - our High priest touched with the feelings of our infirmities.

In Hebrews 5:7, He wept at Gethesemane, anticipating the cross - weeping in salvation. David wept on Olivet; another king, Who would meet our enemy in the valley, wept - the King crucified.

We are delighted to be able to produce another catalogue for your interest. We hope you enjoy flicking through the pages. Could we point out one or two products of special interest?

On the page opposite, you will see Beneath the Wings of Love, a collection of poems which I compiled. A very encouraging little book, ideal for passing along to someone in need of uplifting.

On page 5 you will see two new publications from the late David Gooding Drawing Near to God and Bringing Us To Glory; books that will stimulate thought and open up the scriptures.

On page 8, one of our own, Chris (many of you will know him through the shop) has produced a book on Israel, The Promised Land, based on his numerous visits there. A very illuminating book.

Notice on page 14, a new book from Donald Cameron, looking at global catastrophes in the light of Bible prophecy., Global Crises in Bible Prophecy. A very timely publication.

Finally, could we draw your attention to Shepherding the Sheep on page 21. A most instructive book with a number of contributors bringing light on this subject, as important as ever.

We would like thank you especially for your support during this difficult year. It was extremely rewarding to be able to deliver to so many of you during lockdown and to hear time and again how much you appreciated it. We are very grateful for your support also. It was so great to be able to be open again and see everyone and to know we were missed. We trust the Lord will bless you all and that you will know His peace and presence this Christmas season.

Yours on behalf of the A.E.B. team,
Ricky McCoubrey.

Sankey MY LIFE AND SACRED SONGS

The stories behind your favourite hymns.

£12.99

The first time he sang with D.L. Moody he stood on a wooden crate on a street corner. Before long, Ira Sankey was singing in front of thousands of people in the U.S.A. and Britain. He introduced to the world many of today's best-known hymns and profoundly impacted gospel music for future generations. In this story of Sankey's remarkable life, you will read of how God used the Moody and Sankey meetings in a remarkable way. The names with which they were associated will roll off the tongue; Major D.W. Whittle, Philip P. Bliss, Fanny Crosby, and many more. You will read of the background of many of your favourite hymns; read of the first time The Ninety and Nine was sung, how Sankey made up the tune on the spot, the tune we still use today. You will be encouraged and renewed as you dive into the background of these old hymns, and will be assured once again that the Lord can still use the preaching of His Word and the "singing of the gospel" to the blessing of saint and sinner.

They Finished Their Course Volume 5

Between the years of 2010 and 2019, some valued servants of the Lord were called home. Paperback £4.99 each

This book is written for non-specialists in Bible prophecy, who are worried about the global situation and who are keen to find out what the Bible really says about the future.

People who do not believe in God have every reason to be fearful. Almost every environmentalist and climatologist warns us of catastrophes ahead if we do not take immediate remedial action, and perhaps even if we do take such action, thanks to pollution and exhaustion of limited resources. People who do believe in God, but have not yet made their peace with Him, have at least as many reasons to be fearful. People who do believe in God, and have made their peace with Him through having trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour, have no need to fear for themselves, though they may well fear for unbelieving family members and friends.

The Bible gives God's outline for the present and the future. The present age is due to end soon; we have been graciously given convincing and authoritative signs, such as the sources of terror which we are now experiencing. A golden age is to come too before the end of this old world; but between the present and that age are to be a few years of tribulation and challenge, which Jesus called the Days of Vengeance. Violence, wars, famines, pandemics and earthquakes, all on an unprecedented scale, are all foretold. What we see now are only warning signs. Believers are to be preserved from this in a thrilling way.

A beautiful "pass-along" gift book for any friend. Plenty of thoughts to cheer the heart of a believer and plenty of gospel to provoke thought in an unbeliever.

In this book, John Parkinson's keen eye and photographic skill have captured stunning images of God's majestic creation. These beautiful photographs are accompanied by a series of devotional meditations on the miracles performed by the Creator of all this beauty while He moved in His own creation.

As He met men and women whose lives were marked and marred by the destructive impact of sin, the Saviour's authority was marvellously seen in His power over sickness, over the natural world, over demons, and even over death itself.

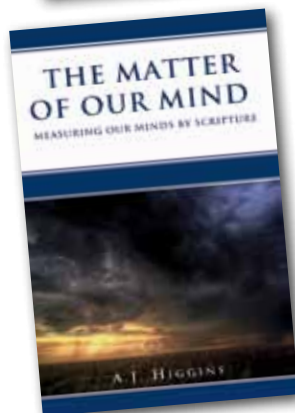

These miracles demonstrate the true identity of the Son of God. They display the authority of Messiah, confirming that He has the ability to fulfil all of the Scripture's promises for the coming Millennial age. And they communicate vital lessons about how Divine power can change the lives of sinful men and women in the present.

John Parkinson £15.99

This volume has its genesis in the Lurgan Conference, 2017. On that occasion the theme of the Bible Readings was shepherding and the passages considered were John 10, Acts 20, 1 Peter 5, and Ezekiel 34. The response to the teaching of the Word of God during and after the conference made it clear that there was both a need and an appetite for teaching on this important and relevant subject, and this volume attempts to address the need. The chapters, by well known Bible teachers, provide a comprehensive overview of the topic from Genesis to Revelation, allowing the reader to appreciate, not only the teaching of individual passages, but the way in which this theme is developed throughout Scripture. The authors have developed truth as they have found it and, as a result, the reader will find in these chapters rich Christological and prophetic teaching as well as much practical counsel for shepherds – and challenges for the sheep. Contributors: Jim Allen, Walter Boyd, David Gilliland, Clark Logan, David McAllister, Craig Munro, Malcolm Radcliffe, Simon Sherwin, Alan Summers, and Mark Sweetnam.

Various contributors £9.99

We live in an anxiety-ridden society. The sale of anti-anxiety and antidepressant medications is at an all-time high. Believers are not immune to these problems. The Scriptures of Truth afford insight and help for all of these real-life issues. While medication and counselling can afford assistance in overcoming anxiety and depression, it is vital to see how the Word of God approaches these problems as well. With chapters covering a range of issues, including the sanctification of our minds, decision-making, meditation, and depression, this volume will be of value to shepherds in local assemblies who have to counsel believers as well as those who have known the distractions and pain of these conditions, and every believer looking for scriptural advice on the matter of the mind. A. J. Higgins is a retired physician who practised for over 40 years in Family medicine. He and his wife, Ruth, are in fellowship in the assembly which gathers in Barrington NJ. His spoken and written ministry is widely appreciated throughout the English-speaking world.
