Dear Friends,

Welcome to our new A.E.B. Christmas Gift Guide. We trust this finds you all well.

2021, so far, has been a difficult and uncertain year for many. However, we know that the Saviour is with us in our trials. In the Bible, myrrh speaks of suffering. There are seven mentions of myrrh in the Old Testament which can be associated with the Saviour. The first mention is associated with rejection, in Genesis 37v25, when the traders who took Joseph down to Egypt sold myrrh, traders in suffering. The Saviour endured the rejection and suffering of the cross for us. The second mention, also concerning Joseph, is Genesis 43v11. There it is associated with recognition when Joseph's brothers begin to recognise the exalted man. One day, this world will recognise the Saviour and will present Him with gifts; but there will be no myrrh. The sufferings of Calvary are passed for ever. The other five mentions are: Exodus 30v23 - Santification, Psalm 45v8 - Identification, Song of Solomon 1v13 - Satisfaction, 3v6 - Assimilation, 5v13 - Attraction.

We are very pleased to be able to produce another catalogue for your interest. We hope you enjoy flicking through it.

On the page opposite, you will see some Harry Ironside reprints. The daily devotional, subtitled The Continual Burnt Offering, is jam-packed with spiritual truths and insights.

On page 4, you will see a new book, Heaven Our Eternal Home, a follow-on from last year's bestseller, Beneath the Wings of Love. People are in need of much encouragement just now and these books are ideal for passing on.

On page 5, you will see another of our bestsellers, Boy Matthew. This story has really touched readers' hearts and we thoroughly recommend it to you.

Last year, Bringing Us to Glory, David Gooding's daily reading on page 23, was a favourite. We still have it on offer along with a new publication, Journeys with Jesus.

There are plenty of exciting new books for children on page 28, and a fantastic journey through the Old Testament by Colin Tinsley on page 27.

We would like to thank all of you for your support during another difficult and unusual year. We really enjoyed serving you during lockdown again and it was so great to be able to reopen and see everyone and to know we were missed. We look forward to welcoming you in our shop again. We trust the Lord will bless you all and that you will know His peace and presence this Christmas season.

Yours on behalf of the A.E.B. team,
Ricky McCoubrey.

HARRY IRONSIDE CLASSIC REPRINTS

Day by Day with the Saviour The Continual Burnt Offering

A 366-day devotional journey through the Bible from Genesis to Revelation

Every daily entry has:

- A Scripture Text
- Dr. Ironside's devotional thoughts
- A poem or hymn

"This book is not intended to take the place of daily Bible reading, but rather to offer suggestive helps by focusing the attention on particular passages and offering simple comments designed to move the heart to a deeper sense of responsibility to God and devotion to our Lord Jesus Christ. The notes are mine, some new and others selected from my own books. The poems have been gathered from many sources."

H. A. Ironside

£12.99

A HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE BRETHREN MOVEMENT

Subtitled, "An Account of Its Inception, Progress, Principles and Failures, and Its Lessons for Present Day Believers," this is a warm, affectionate look at this movement, balanced with constructive criticism. From its beginnings in the early 1800s, the "brethren movement" made an incalculable contribution to Bible teaching literature and hymnology, opening up teaching on areas such as prophecy and typology. A valuable and insightful read.

£10.99

RANDOM REMINISCENCES: FIFTY YEARS OF MINISTRY

In this priceless little book, Ironside tells us some of his most interesting experiences in his long years of gospel work. "Solomon tells us that as 'Iron sharpeneth iron, so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend' (Proverbs 27:17). It is in the hope that these stories of God's ways of grace with one of the least of His servants may tend to 'sharpen' the spiritual experiences of others, that they are now reprinted in this form." - from the preface.

Heaven our Eternal Home

Classic writings on heaven

Edited and compiled by

RICKY MCCOUBREY

The promise of heaven gives hope to the believer and puts a song in our hearts. This collection contains hymns and poems about heaven as well as uplifting writings from classic authors. We trust that this little book will encourage our hearts and lift our thoughts to heaven, which the Bible calls, "a better country."

Including:

Shall We Know One Another in Heaven

by J.C. Ryle

Blessed Are The Dead

by Robert Murray McChesney

No Tears in Heaven

by C.H. Spurgeon

And the Gates Were Twelve Pearls

by J. Wilbur Chapman

Single copy price £4.99

Buy 6 for £4.50 each, or 10 for £4.00 each

Beneath the Wings of Love

Poems of encouragement and blessing

Compiled by

RICKY MCCOUBREY

Poetry can stir the soul, comfort the heart and stimulate the mind. This collection contains poems from renowned authors such as Robert Murray McChesney, Fanny Crosby, John Bunyan and C.T. Studd, and many from lesser-known believers who have experienced the grace of God in times of deep trial. We trust this little volume will draw reader's thoughts away from this transient world and off to the Saviour, the "Man in the glory."

Seventy poems including:

A Little Talk With Jesus • Footprints • God's Christmas Gift • Great Expectations • Only One Life • The Folded Lamb • The Robin and the Sparrow • The Man in the Glory • The Weaver What God Hath Promised, and many more.

Single copy price £6.99

BOY MATTHEW

A story of grief and grace by Phyllis and Hertford Arnold

This book is a testimony and tribute to a young man, Matthew Arnold, who early in life, had anchored his faith in Jesus Christ. It is no surprise that one of his favourite hymns was "Will your anchor hold in the storms of life, When the clouds unfold their wings of strife..." Matthew was killed in a motor-cycle accident three weeks after the birth of his first child, Eve Matty Jean. His wife, Ciara, was absolutely devastated. For his parents, Hertford and Phyllis Arnold, and Matthew's brother Ford and wife Nicola, it was a further heart-breaking and inexplicable calamity. They had already suffered the loss of two sons, Thomas and Wendsley, back in November 1989 within several days of each other. That story and testimony is already recorded in a book, 'Some Party in Heaven.' 'Boy Matthew' is a family testimony of how God's grace has sustained them through their grief and sorrow. The testimony of 'the anchor' that Matthew sang about, is that "the anchor still holds," sure and steadfast in the midst of the severest storms in life – that anchor is Jesus Christ, the Rock of our salvation.

Tony Merida explores what church is, why being part of it is exciting, and why it's worthy of our love and commitment. He sets out eight privileges and responsibilities of a church member: to belong, to welcome, to gather, to care, to serve, to honour, to witness and to send.

Tony Merida

Renowned Bible teacher Alistair Begg examines the first seven chapters of Daniel to show us that living by faith in Daniel's God will enable us to live bravely, confidently and obediently in an increasingly secular society.

David Gooding Books

Journeys With Jesus

David Gooding

True stories of changed destinies in John's gospel

David Gooding traces for us some of these individual journeys of faith in which the Lord Jesus Himself was leading the way. By considering their backgrounds and listening as Christ diagnoses their problems, we not only begin to feel that we know these people but also to realize that the one who spoke to them is still speaking through their stories to us today.

NEW FROM DONALD CAMERON

A Terrified World and Silent Churches

Myths that Muzzle Modern Churches

The Lord Jesus Christ foretold a time of "men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things that are coming on the earth." We are not yet at that point, but it is fast approaching. We have seen that God is currently allowing the world to experience escalating fear of inter-racial strife, warfare, lawlessness, violence, environmental disasters, famines and pandemics, all features foretold as heralding the nearness of Christ's Second Coming. Astonishingly most churches offer no explanations, and are therefore almost powerless to act with authority as Christ's ambassadors at a time of crisis. They have been muzzled by the three contrasting false teachings or myths (a) that the Church is the 'New Israel', (b) that the world is to end at Christ's Return, and (c) that the world is to be 'Christianised' and morally and environmentally restored before Christ's Return, rather than after it. Messianic prophecies fulfilled at His First Coming are taken literally; those referring to His Second Coming are ignored or allegorised. No wonder Churches have so little to say to a fearful world! Large format paperback, 352 pages.

Within the Bible, there are stories of adventure, romance and miracles, involving nations, families and individuals who had dealings with God.

From Genesis to Malachi, the big picture of the Bible is God preparing a way to restore His relationship with fallen humanity through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

This book explains every book in the Old Testament simply for everyone to understand.
