Dear Friends,

Welcome to our new A.E.B. Christmas Gift Guide. We trust this finds you all well.

During the uncertainties of the days we live in, we can know that we are “under the wings” of the Saviour. Four times in the Old Testament we read of this truth. In Ruth 2v12, Ruth finds salvation under the wings of the One she has come to trust. In Psalm 17v8 and 91v2, we find security under His Wings. Finally, in Psalm 36v7 we can find satisfaction and all that we need under the wings of the Saviour. We trust you will enjoy these truths in the days ahead.

We are very pleased to be able to produce another catalogue for your interest. We hope you enjoy looking through it.

On the page opposite, you will see some Harry Ironside reprints. Day by Day with the Saviour was our runaway bestseller last year and we have had to reprint it. We commend it highly to you.

On page 4, you will see a new book, Faithful Is He Who Has Promised, a new collection of poetry, a follow-on from previous bestsellers, Beneath the Wings of Love, Heaven Our Eternal Home and He Giveth More Grace. People are in need of much encouragement just now and these books are ideal for passing on.

On page 17, notice a lovely new book by Victor Maxwell, celebrating the life of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. This would make an excellent “passalong” gift and has a brief gospel message from the author at the close.

Take a look at pages 18 & 19 for our exciting new range of attractive gifts: slates, coasters and baubles, with Scripture verses.

Finally, on page 27, you will see that we have a special offer on all Cambridge Bibles; 10% off instore and online. We have included a selection of new editions and classic Bibles. We carry a full range of Cambridge Bibles.

We would like to thank you all once again for your support another year. It is always a pleasure to serve you. We trust the Lord will bless you all and that you will know His peace and presence this Christmas season.

Yours on behalf of the A.E.B. team,
Ricky McCoubrey.

NEW FROM DONALD CAMERON

Understanding the Book of Revelation

A Commentary for a World in Crisis

This book is intended neither to be too basic nor to be too academic. Virtually every verse is covered, but periodically it comments on matters which appear to be coming clearer politically, environmentally or scientifically, as the prophetic horizon becomes ever nearer. In His Olivet Discourse Jesus foretold ever intensifying inter-racial strife, international warfare, famines, pandemics, earthquakes and men's hearts failing them for fear as His Second Coming draws near. Revelation is the Apocalypse which contains at least as much good news as bad. Peter tells us to be able to answer anybody who asks a reason for our hope; Revelation helps us to do that comprehensively. We might think of Revelation as a longer second chapter of that Discourse. It draws together the loose ends of the numerous yet-to-be-fulfilled prophecies of both the Old and New Testaments.

Paperback, 238 pages.

A Terrified World and Silent Churches

Myths that Muzzle Modern Churches

The Lord Jesus Christ foretold a time of "men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things that are coming on the earth." We are not yet at that point, but it is fast approaching. Astonishingly most churches offer no explanations, and are therefore almost powerless to act with authority as Christ's ambassadors at a time of crisis. They have been muzzled by the three contrasting false teachings or myths (a) that the Church is the 'New Israel', (b) that the world is to end at Christ's Return, and (c) that the world is to be 'Christianised' and morally and environmentally restored before Christ's Return, rather than after it. Messianic prophecies fulfilled at His First Coming are taken literally; those referring to His Second Coming are ignored or allegorised. No wonder Churches have so little to say to a fearful world!

A Desert Journey: Egypt - Sinai - Canaan

Walter Boyd

The journey of the children of Israel from the captivity of Egypt to the liberty and bounty of Canaan is a fascinating story. In spite of their familiarity, the drama and incident, the triumphs and tragedies of the journey still have the capacity to thrill us. Over the course of one hundred brief meditations, this book traces the wilderness journey of the Israelites and the "things which happened unto them" as they followed the cloudy pillar to the promised land. You will be encouraged and admonished as you journey with them.

Paperback. £13.99 Due November

His Son Jesus Christ Our Lord

Fifty-Two Weekly Meditations

Walter Boyd

This book contains fifty-two meditations on the great subject of "His Son Jesus Christ Our Lord." These meditations began life as a series of weekly email devotions during Covid-19 lockdown restrictions. During these difficult days, these emails were an encouragement and blessing to many of God's people around the world and they are now collected in book format in the hope that, in this more permanent form, they will continue to help God's people appreciate the excellencies and glories of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paperback. £13.99

Ezekiel's Temple

Bob Berry

This new study of Ezekiel's Temple demonstrates that it must be future and literal and explores the question of animal sacrifices in the Millennium. The layout of the Temple is explained in text and diagrams, and there is a detailed, verse-by-verse exposition of all nine chapters.

Paperback. £11.99

For the Whole World

Walter Boyd

Subtitled "For Our Sins Only", this is a forensic critique of particular redemption or limited atonement, examining scripture in intricate detail.
£9.99

The Surprising Saviour

Mark Sweetnam

Each chapter considers a portion of Scripture where the Greek word thaumazō appears – a word most often translated in the Authorised Version as 'marvelled'. A devotional treat.
