Dear friends,

Welcome to our 2025 Christmas Gift Guide from Ards Evangelical Bookshop

We have enjoyed putting together a selection of new books and Bibles, etc. for your interest and trust you will enjoy looking through this catalogue.

On the opposite page, you will see some of our own publications; two classic reprints featuring missionary stories of a past era. It's always encouraging to trace how God worked in times past. Also, on page 4, you can see a reprint of H.A. Ironside's Illustrations of Bible Truth; full of illuminating and heartwarming stories which Harry used in preaching the gospel.

Notice on page 14-15, some new and bestselling daily devotionals, including deluxe reprints from C.H. Spurgeon and J.C. Ryle.

Finally, on page 26, see our range of quality Cambridge Bibles. We carry a good stock of Cambridge Bibles, many of them hand-bound in top quality leather.

At this time of year, our thoughts turn to the coming into the world of the Saviour, the Lord Jesus. Luke tells us that Mary and Joseph went to Bethlehem for the census. The Name of the Son of God was written in the annals of world history. What grace! His Name was also written above His cross, telling of His grief when He died for us at calvary. Lastly, in Revelation 22 it says, His servants shall serve Him: and they shall see His face; and His Name shall be on their foreheads." That is the glory ahead for the believer and for the Lord Jesus Himself.

We would like to sincerely thank you for your custom another year. We could not serve the Lord's people as we do without your support and it is always a pleasure to serve you. We trust you will be encouraged and know the blessing and presence of the Lord another Christmas season.

Yours on behalf of the AEB team,
Ricky McCoubrey

Day by Day with the Saviour

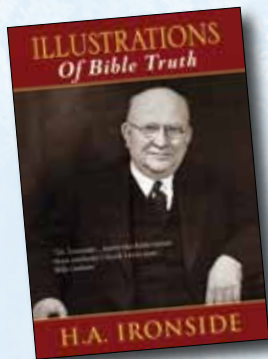

The Continual Burnt Offering

A 366-day devotional journey through the Bible

Every daily entry has:

• A Scripture Text • Dr. Ironside's devotional thoughts • A poem or hymn

"This book is not intended to take the place of daily Bible reading, but rather to offer suggestive helps by focusing the attention on particular passages and offering simple comments designed to move the heart to a deeper sense of responsibility to God and devotion to our Lord Jesus Christ. The notes are mine, some new and others selected from my own books. The poems have been gathered from many sources." H. A. Ironside £14.99

ILLUSTRATIONS Of Bible Truth

"At the request of valued friends, I have grouped together here many stories and incidents which have served me well throughout a long ministry and which I hope may be used to advantage by others. Many are from my own personal experience and will not be found in the collections of other writers. Some, however, have been used in my books on various subjects. Others are now printed for the first time. I send them forth to the glory of Him who has been to me for over half a century, a wonderful Saviour and a faithful Friend, my ever adorable Lord Jesus Christ."

The Lord's Supper

Walter Boyd

Since the time of its institution, the Lord's Supper has held a place of importance in the teaching and practice of the Christian faith. In one sense it seems strange that a subject of such importance and sacred solemnity should have become the centre of bitter controversy over the centuries of Church history. It is also strange that through those centuries its straightforward instructions have been tampered with to the extent the ordinance is unrecognisable in many circles. There is nothing sweeter than the observance of the Lord's Supper in its original simplicity. Yet, in another sense its attack is to be expected for anything that is fundamental and precious to the Church will always be a target for the enemy. This consideration of the Bible's teaching about the significance of the Supper and its instructions for its observance will help believers young and old to grasp more firmly the Scriptural pattern of the Supper and the meaning that it so simply and profoundly conveys, and to appreciate more fully the privilege and the responsibility of remembering the Lord in His appointed way.
